

I strongly oppose the weakening of the Indiana State law. I am tired of being solicited at my home, that's why I participate on the Do Not Call List. I do not want my bankers, or long distance carriers to have the ability to be exempted from the law just because I have chosen to do business with them. I know how to reach them if they advertise a product or service I want I'll call them.